Volume 76 September Issue 9

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

HELLO MEMBERS,

Before I go into any lodge news.

Please pray for our men and women in our armed forces, these are trying times for them, and they need our support. May they all return safely to their families and give strength to the families of the 13 service men and women that were taken from them.

As we bow our heads also remember the souls that we lost on September 11, let us never forget.

AMEN

Hello September, where did the summer go.

We have a lot of events coming up, none bigger then Elkfest. We need all hands-on deck to make this work, contact John Gartz to volunteer.

Other upcoming events are our Special needs tailgate party, Elvis and many more, keep an eye out for flyers. Our Friday night dinners are going well so keep on supporting.

We have a bike raffle going on to support the Special needs, winning number to be pulled at Elkfest.

Fraternally Yours

Tom

SEPTEMBER ELK OF THE MONTH

ELK OF THE MONTH FOR SEPTEMBER IS AMANDA WILLS

ELK OF THE MONTH BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Amanda Wills

Amanda has been an active member since joining. An Officer multiple times, including Exalted Ruler, Esquire, and has been our drug awareness chairperson over the past few years. We can always count on her when needed. She and her husband, Brian, often visit other lodges throughout the district and State. She is a great representative for Our lodge! She has truly stepped up this year, in helping Our lodge with fundraising, hosting our Flea Market and Yard Sale events. She is first to volunteer a basket for raffle, (usually containing fine wine:) Always greets new and visiting members with a smile and Hello. Please help us in congratulating Amanda on being our September Elk of the Month

VETERANS NEWS

By: Nancy DeVito

Fall is almost here!

It had to be the hottest summer ever. I pray that our country gets back on track and life as we know it returns to normal. It's tough not seeing our Veterans at the Nursing homes in person. But we have not forgotten about them nor will we ever.

Our last fishing trip was a huge success the Navy and a few Veterans enjoyed a great day of fishing and then back to the lodge for a good meal. I have to say the hugs were very much appreciated.

I had the pleasure of volunteering to do face painting and balloons to help our veterans that suffer from PTSD and their families. It was held at Lake Julianna where part of the Vet's therapy is to teach special needs children to fish. What a fun bunch of Veterans.

I had the honor of touring the Dover Air Force base in Delaware. The Fisher House located on base is where all fallen soldiers go before they go to their resting place. Little did I know that two days later we lost 13 soldiers. It is so heart breaking.

JBMDL is collecting clothes for refugees, children, women, and men. The committee's generosity has been overwelling. JBMDL has sent out a flyer, they need to sort what they have right now but hygiene products such as soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, shampoo, sanitary napkins, diapers, wipes are always needed.

October 9 the Southeast District is having a 50's dance fund raiser at the Manasquan lodge. PLEASE support them, all proceeds go to support our Veterans. So come on down!
